6. The title is acceptable.

Claim Rejections - 35 U.S.C. § 112, second paragraph

7. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

8. Claim 15 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 15: "the cylindrical attachments" lacks antecedent basis. It appears claim 15 should depend from claim 14.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

9. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

10. Claims 1-3, 5-7, 11, 12, 17, and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by SU 1556761.

Abstract (Basic): SU 1556761 A
The centrifuge has a rotor (2) fitted on a vertical hollow shaft (1). The rotor has cylindrical cups (3) with a packet of plates (4) and openings (5) for the clarified liq. outlet, placed perpendicular to the rotor rotation axis. The cups are fitted on bearings (6) and are provided with moving and stationary bearings (7,8) for rotation of cups w.r.t. their horizontal axis. The moving bearing is placed on the vertical hollow shaft.
The rotor is rotated by drive (12). The cylindrical cups (3) turn about the rotor rotation axis and w.r.t. their horizontal axis. The suspension through hollow shaft (1) and feeding pipes (11) flows to the cups (3) where due to the centrifugal force is sepd. in the packet of plates (4) into clarified liq. and sediment. The liq. flows to the collector (10) and the sediment is collected on the cups walls and base.
USE/ADVANTAGE - For suspension sepd. in chemical, food and other industries. Sepn. quality is improved. Bul.14/15.4.90 (2pp Dwg.No. 1/1)

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

11. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

12. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

13. Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over SU 1556761.

SU 1556761 discloses a driving device 12 but not a driving device for each of the drums 3. However, it would have been obvious and mere common sense to one having ordinary skill in the art, at the time applicant's invention was made, to provided the centrifugal apparatus of SU '761 with more than one driving device, since it has been held that mere duplication of the essential working parts of a device involves only routine skill in the art. St. Regis Paper Co. v. Bemis Co., 193 USPQ 8.

Allowable Subject Matter

14. Claim 15 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection under 35 U.S.C. § 112 and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

15. Claims 8-10, 13-14, and 18-20 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

16. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

17. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Charles E. Cooley in Art Unit 1797 whose telephone number is (571) 272-1139. The examiner can normally be reached on Mon-Fri. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
